DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 18-30, drawn to a method of fastening and aligning a sensor.

Group II, claim(s) 31-40, drawn to device for fastening the sensor.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: all features are anticipated by DE 101 62 652.

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species group are as follows:

- a. (claim 22 and 33) Wherein the sensor is at least one of
  - i. an ultrasound sensor
  - ii. a light-sensitive sensor
  - iii. a video sensor
  - iv. an electromagnetic radiation sensor
  - v. a radar sensor
- b. (claim 23 and 36) wherein the sensor axis is one of
  - vi. in a direction of the holding element and the support
  - vii. in a direction opposite to the direction of the holding element and the support.

Art Unit: 1734

- c. (claim 26) wherein the material-removing process includes at least one of
  - viii. milling,
  - ix. drilling
  - x. laser processing
- d. (claims 29 and 30) wherein at least one of
  - xi. (a) the holding element includes an accommodation for at least a part of the sensor and (b) the holding element includes a sensor antechamber protected from intrusion of at least one of (a) chips and (b) dirt.
  - xii. (a) the holding element includes an accommodation for at least a part of the sensor and (b) the holding element includes a sensor antechamber protected from intrusion of at least one of (a) chips and (b) dirt by a cover element.
- e. (claim 34) wherein the holding element is fastened to a support, the holding element including component part tolerances, the support including at least one of
  - xiii. (a) a convex,
  - xiv. (b) a concave and
  - xv. (c) a planar surface

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species from each of the groups a, b, c, d and e (5 elections total, one from each group) to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

The species under group a correspond to the Markush group of claim 22 for method and claim 33 for the device.

Art Unit: 1734

The species under group b correspond to the Markush group of claim 23 for method and claim 36 for the device.

The species under group c correspond to the Markush group of claim 26 for method.

The species under group c correspond to the Markush group of claim 29 and 30 for method.

The species under group c correspond to the Markush group of claim 34 for the device.

The following claim(s) are generic: 18-21, 24-25, 27, 28, 31, 32, 35, 37-40.

5. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: They are mutually exclusive species.

6. A telephone call was made to x on x to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to George R. Koch III whose telephone number is (571) 272-1230. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 9-5.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Philip Tucker can be reached on (571) 272-1095. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
